1. Summary & Goal

Why it matters: What we wanted to achieve in simple numbers.

Use the quick steps below. Keep the language simple; talk like a human. If a step feels heavy, cut it in half and ship a smaller version first.

- Goal in one line: keep it simple and measurable.
- Audience: who feels the pain now? Write 2–3 real examples.
- Message: one promise + one proof + one action.
- Channel: start with the easiest path you can repeat daily.
- Offer: remove risk; add a small win or sample.
- Tracking: use one sheet to log tests, results, next step.
- Next action: what can be shipped today in 30 minutes?
